

Promoting creativity, commerce, craft and the community of writers.

If you are a writer who would like to pursue your love of writing, is looking to expand your talents and wants to explore the market for publication, then In Print is the organization for you.

In Print will meet the second Saturday of each month at the Cherry Valley Library (755 East State Street, Cherry Valley, IL), unless otherwise noted.

In Print meetings include market-related keynote speakers, workshops, critique sessions, writing prompts, research field trips, retreats, and networking opportunities for published and non-published writers. In addition to meeting benefits, members will receive: a calendar of events, conferences, contests, and classes; the monthly newsletter; and the invaluable resources this community of writers has to offer.

Annual membership is $30 per person and includes a membership to the Chicago Writers Association. To become a member, please complete the form below and send it with your check or money order to:
